Morning Offering

God, our Father, I offer You my day.
 I offer You my prayers, thoughts, words,
 actions, joys, and sufferings
 in union with Your Son Jesus' Heart,
 Who continues to offer Himself in the Eucharist
 for the salvation of the world.
 May the Holy Spirit, Who guided Jesus, be my guide and my strength today
 so that I may witness to Your love.
 With Mary, the mother of our Lord and of the Church,
 I pray especially for members of my family and this Parish, that all will strive to live the Eucharist.

THE SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE on "OUR FAITH"

As we celebrate the Church's Year of Faith, this column will look into the different aspects of our faith and faith practices. Understanding what we believe and why, is an important part of this year's celebration.

Who are the "Church Fathers"?

The expression "the Fathers" comes naturally to be applied to the holy bishops of a preceding age, whether of the last generation or further back, since they are the parents at whose knee the Church of today was taught her belief. As our own Fathers are the predecessors who have taught us, so the Fathers of the whole Church are especially the earlier teachers, who instructed her in the teaching of the Apostles, during her infancy and first growth.

There are four traditional criteria for determining who is a Church Father:

Antiquity

Holiness of Life

Orthodox teaching

Ecclesiastical approval.

In the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation (Dei Verbum), we are told that the Church encourages the study of the Holy Fathers of both East and West. In the Decree on Ecumenism (Unitatis Redintegratio), the Church honors the way the Eastern Rite Christians give homage to the saints, including Fathers of the Universal Church, mentioning Basil, Gregory of Nyssa, Gregory of Nazianzen, John Chrysostom, Athanasius, and Ephrem. The Catechism speaks of the role of the Fathers in catechesis, the education in the faith, particularly Cyril of Jerusalem, John Chrysostom, Ambrose, and Augustine. The Church Fathers are considered witnesses to the Tradition of the Church.

There is no definitive list of the Church Fathers. In addition to the above, Cyprian, Hilary, Cyril of Alexandria, Jerome, and Leo the Great are frequently mentioned.

ST. RITA'S LENTEN OFFERING

Come join us Wednesday evenings at St. Rita Retreat Center, Gold Hill, in singing the Chaplet of Divine Mercy praises for Lent at 6:30 p.m. in the conference center.

We welcome you to join us for this wonderful prayer experience.

PARKING REMINDER

Please do not park in the half circle drive in front of the parish hall. This area is reserved for emergency vehicles. We do not paint the curbs red because we do allow funeral hearses and wedding limos to use the drive. We appreciate your help with this.

LEGION OF MARY

Legion of Mary meets every Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall. You are welcome to come over for coffee & muffins after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. Stay for the meeting if you wish, pray with us and if you like become a member and help us take Communion to the homebound. Guaranteed to be a good start to your day!

LENTEN PENANCE SERVICE

Lent is a time of our liturgical calendar uniquely dedicated to reconciliation and conversion of heart. Please plan to attend one of our Parish Reconciliation Services this week: 7:00 pm on Tuesday or 10:00 am on Wednesday. Like all other sacraments, reconciliation is not a private sacrament, but rather a communal one where we recognize that our sins do indeed touch the lives of others. We need to pray together and we need to support one another in living a more holy life. After a short Liturgy of the Word and examination of conscience there will be a number priests available to hear individual confessions.

“ God esteems repentance so highly that the slightest repentance in the world, as long as it is genuine, causes him to forget any kind of sin, so that even the devils would have all their sins forgiven, if only they could have remorse.” ~ St. Francis de Sales

BULLETINS VIA EMAIL

Would you like to receive the Sunday bulletin via email? I send it out each week on Tuesdays right after it goes to the printer. Email your request to Eileen at ekralik@shcs.org and be one of the first to receive the parish news!

Due to increased foot traffic in our parking lot please be sure to stow your valuables and lock your vehicle while you are at Mass or at Chapel.
