Q: Did St. Dominic receive the rosary and was it 15 decades? If so why do we say only 5? Why 10 Hail Marys? Who designed the 5 we usually say?

A: The history of the Rosary is an interesting thing. Its creation is generally attributed to a private revelation that St. Dominic (1170 – 1221 AD), founder of the Dominican Order, experienced when Mary appeared to him and taught him the prayer. The Rosary version that we consider the classic version (a.k.a. The Dominican Rosary) is made up of five Joyful Mysteries, five Sorrowful Mysteries and five Glorious Mysteries. Each mystery is made up of one Our Father, ten Hail Marys and one Glory Be, though individual devotees today often add other prayers as well (such as the Fatima prayer, St. Michael prayer, etc.). Each mystery is meant to lead one to meditate on a joyful, sad or glorious moment in the life of Jesus or Mary. From a practical standpoint, many saw these fifteen mysteries as a mini layman's version of the Liturgy of the Hours that the clergy and religious prayed because that prayer contained 150 psalms, prayed daily, and the laity prayed 150 Hail Marys spread out throughout the day. For those who were illiterate (which was most people) the Rosary gained rapid popularity because the ability to read was not required as the prayers could be quickly memorized and yet the meditations were about scenes from Sacred Scripture. Over the centuries, apart from the prayer of the Mass, the Rosary has become the most recommended and indulgenced prayer of the Church and is recommended by popes and saints alike. The five classic Joyful Mysteries come from the childhood of Jesus and include The Annunciation, The Visitation, The Birth of Christ/The Nativity, The Presentation, and The Finding of Jesus in the Temple. The five classic Sorrowful Mysteries are from the Passion of Christ and include The Agony in the Garden, The Scourging at the Pillar, The Crowning of Thorns, The Carrying of the Cross and The Crucifixion. The five Glorious Mysteries are all post-Resurrection events and include The Resurrection, The Ascension, Pentecost, The Assumption (of Mary, body and soul, into Heaven), and the Crowning of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Originally, all fifteen mysteries were prayed daily but, over time, they were broken up into three sets of five to be prayed in rotation through the week (this to accommodate busier people). In 2002, St. John Paul II shocked many by adding five Luminous Mysteries (a.k.a. The Mysteries of Light). He explained that what was missing up to that point were the events of Jesus' public ministry...the little epiphanies that revealed his divinity to the public at key moments. So after nearly 800 years The Baptism of the Lord, The Wedding at Cana, The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, The Transfiguration and the Last Supper/Institution of the Eucharist were added. Some were excited by this news and welcomed it but other purists considered these new additions as a break from comfortable tradition. If you fall into this latter group you should know that there are only three public prayers of the Church whose liturgies are set with hard fast rules that must be followed. They are the Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist, which make up the Mass, and the Liturgy of the Hours. All other devotions are considered private devotions which can be customized to the individual. St. John Paul II said that he often made up his own mysteries when he prayed the Rosary on his own or simply continued to reflect on one particular mystery. This was also true from the very beginning. I have said that the Dominican Rosary is the one we are classically familiar with today. The Franciscan Rosary, also known as the Crown or Seraphic Rosary exclusively focused on the Joyful mysteries but there were seven. In addition to the classic five they included The Adoration of the Magi and Jesus' appearance to Mary after the Resurrection. The Servites also had a Rosary that focused on the Seven Sorrows of Mary. They were The Prophecy of Simeon, The Flight into Egypt, The Loss of the Child Jesus in Jerusalem, Mary Meeting Jesus on the Via Dolorosa, The Crucifixion, The Death of Jesus (including the piercing of his heart and taking his body down from the Cross and placing it in Mary's arms) and The Burial of Jesus. Finally, the Carmelites and Brigittines had an 18 mystery Rosary. Added to the Joyful as the first mystery was The Immaculate Conception. Added to the end of the Sorrowful was the Pieta (Mary holding Jesus' corpse). And added to the Glorious at the end was the Patronage of Mary as Mediatrix of all Graces. For me, the Rosary is always best prayed in private because everyone has their own favored way and their own preferred pace and prayers. But you may prefer to pray it as part of a group. Just understand that there is no one correct way to pray it. Use the way that best leads you to God.

ARCHBISHOP’S CATHOLIC APPEAL

The theme of this year’s Appeal is “Teach, Bless, Serve”. The Appeal provides a unique opportunity to teach our faith to others and express our gratitude for the Lord’s blessings we have received. The Appeal also allows us to share those blessings with others – with Catholic ministry, education and services that help parishes throughout our Archdiocese. The very act of giving is a blessing we bestow on others. And when we bless others, God in turn blesses us for our service.

Our parish goal this year is $79,271. Please prayerfully reflect upon the many blessings you have received and consider how much you will return to further His work in our Archdiocese. Your commitment is needed and will be of great help to those who have and will benefit from the Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal funding.

If you would like to pledge to the Appeal, the parish office has the envelopes needed. Thank you for your continuing support of our parish and Archdiocese.

RESTORE THE CHURCH/BUILD THE FUTURE

Collection to be taken up on Ash Wednesday, February 10, 2016
Envelopes available at the doors of the Church

Your support of the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe (CCEE) helps provide grants for projects to restore the Church and build the future in these areas. Many children in Armenia live on the street because of poor family situations or the need to earn money. The Sisters of the Immaculate Conception have used a grant from CCEE to fund a summer camp for 850 children who are orphans, live in extreme poverty, or live in poor isolated villages. While at camp, the children can experience the encouraging love and support of God and others.
