

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

FIRST READING: Acts of the Apostles 10:34a, 37-43 (42ABC)

SECOND READING: Colossians 3:1-4 GOSPEL: John 20:1-9

Happy Easter Joy to You and Yours!

Here are a few thoughts on Easter for you all to ponder in the form of an acrostic:

H / A is for... Hallelujah or Alleluia – Hallelujah is a Hebrew compound word formed from two smaller words...hallal and Yah. Hallal means to praise and Yah is short for Yahweh, the name of God. In Greek, the word becomes Alleluia. In either language, it is a term of great joy associated with the songs of the angels praising God in Heaven. In the Mass, when we sing or say “Alleluia” we participate in the angels’ worship and the Mass becomes a temporary participation in Heaven. We are saying that, in one sense, the Kingdom of Heaven is already established on Earth. During Lent, however, our focus is on the Kingdom coming and so we refrain from the use of the word until Easter arrives. We welcome the word back into our vocabulary annually at the Easter Vigil with a joyful triple Alleluia as the Gospel is proclaimed!

P – P is for ... Passover to Pentecost – Easter is such an important event within the Christian faith that one day will just not do. We celebrate an Easter season which runs from Easter Vigil, where we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus, to Pentecost, where we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit. But did you know that, before it was our holy season this period of time was already being celebrated by the Jews? The season was known as The Counting of the Omer. It ran from Passover (the festival recounting the Jews being passed over by the angel of death [10th plague of Egypt] and delivered from slavery out of Egypt) to Shavu’ot or The Festival of Weeks which we know today as Pentecost. It was the second of three major festivals for ancient Jews. It was celebrated for two reasons. First, historically the Jews celebrated the receiving of the Law or Torah on Mt. Sinai (Hag Matan Torateinu). Secondly, agriculturally, there was the celebration of the harvest of the first fruits that would be brought to the Temple as a way of thanking God for a plentiful harvest (Hag ha-Bikkurim). The season was meant to link the two feasts as a reminder that the Law of God and God’s saving action freeing His people from bondage allows them to bear much fruit [See Judaism 101].

Y is for Yes. In sin we are always saying “No” to God’s law, God’s plan for us, God’s rightful authority in our lives. Adam and Eve said “No”...I will not serve! This is the devil’s favorite word too. Jesus showed us another way. In the Garden of Gethsemane he said “not my will but yours”. He said “Yes”. And the greatest saint of the Church...Mary, our mother, followed suit. She said, “Be it done to me according to your word”. She said “Yes”. Saying “Yes” to God is our pathway to new life in the Spirit and to Easter joy!

E is for ...the dating of Easter. As you may know, Easter is a moveable feast. Catholics calculate the date differently today than the way Jews calculate Passover. This formula was determined at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD. First the Vernal Equinox is determined (the 1st day of Spring). Then we locate the first full moon after the Vernal Equinox. Finally, since Easter must always be celebrated on a Sunday, Easter is determined as the first Sunday after the first full moon after the Vernal Equinox.

A is for ... Amen. Through the Eucharist, Catholics are able to renew their covenant with the Lord daily if they like. They are incorporated into the saving work of Jesus that he accomplished on the cross and through his resurrection and ascension into Heaven. They fulfill the command of Jesus at the Last Supper when he told us to “do this in remembrance of me”. And as John relayed to us in the sixth chapter of his gospel, through the Eucharist we have life within us. Therefore, when we receive the Lord, body, blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist, the least we can do is show a sign of our belief. When we hear “the body/blood of Christ” the proper answer is not “thank you” or silence but “Amen... This is true”

S is for Sunday. The early pagan association with this day was linked to sun worship. Pagans believed the sun god died each night as the sun set, and rose from the dead each morning with dawn. Sunday was not the Sabbath day for the Jews. They celebrated the Sabbath on Saturday. Early documents such as the Didache (approx. 65 AD) confirm that Christians intentionally shifted their Sabbath to Sunday because of the resurrection of Jesus. And with that shift, as with other things formally pagan, they “baptized” the day and Sunday, in effect, became Son-day as they worshipped the Son of God.

T is for ...Theophany. A theophany is an encounter with God. In the case of all the Gospel readings that follow immediately after Easter Sunday, these are encounters with the Risen Lord. Doubting Thomas, the disciples on the road to Emmaus, Mary Magdalene, John and Peter racing to the tomb and many others. We hope that each of us, as Christians can add our names to the list as well as we also strive to encounter the Risen Jesus in our spiritual lives.

E is for Eostre, Eostarun and Easter eggs. Though our Christian celebration of Easter is inspired by Jesus' resurrection from the dead, over the centuries the feast has also picked up aspects or symbols from the pagan world linked with the image of new life. For instance, the name Easter is likely linked to the pagan goddess Eostre, who was associated with Spring and rebirth or Eostarun, the German word for dawn. Exchanging painted Easter eggs first occurred in ancient Persia and Egypt as symbols of fertility and new life. Similarly, rabbits were also initially used as symbols of fertility. As with many other pagan customs, early Christian evangelists often took what was already in practice and "baptized" it for their own use in catechizing peoples and converting cultures over to Christian practice.

R is for Resurrection. Jesus rose from the dead on the third day just as he promised. He is the "first fruits" and a sign of hope for us all that reminds us that death is not the final word. Resurrection awaits us all one day when our souls will be reunited to our glorified bodies. But that experience of resurrection begins even now, spiritually, as God grants us new life in the spirit. Through faith, God desires that we begin even now to live as new creations, transformed by his grace. God bless you all and may you all know new life in Him.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY SERVICE
3:00PM ON APRIL 3RD

"Jesus, I trust in you!" Please join us for the beautifully sung Divine Mercy Service, Sunday, April 3, at 3:00 pm in the church. There will also be Benediction and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. A reception will follow in the parish hall.

St. Faustina reported Jesus saying to her, "Souls that make an appeal to My mercy delight Me. To such souls I grant even more than they ask. I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to My compassion." Come celebrate the wonderful Mercy of the Lord toward us!

BE A PILGRIM THROUGH THE DOORS OF MERCY
Friday, April 29th at 6PM

Join parish ministries in a Jubilee Year of Mercy Celebration where we will honor the mercy of God and enter through the "Open Door". The wish of Pope Francis is the jubilee be a living experience of the closeness of the Father, tenderness almost tangible, so that the faith of every believer may be strengthened and thus testimony to be ever more effective. To participate more fully, pick up an informational handout at the parish doors this month.

Please welcome Sacred Heart's FIFTY newly initiated Catholics!

This year our parish is very blessed to welcome fifty new youth, teens, and adults into the full communion of the Catholic Church! They were carefully and lovingly formed and educated in the Catholic faith through our parish's RCIA by the RCIA Director Ann Brophy, the youth catechist Shari Lloyd, the teen catechist Ingrid DeCarlow, Danielle Governor, the RCIA adult team Bill Anderson, Cheryl Robertson, Jon Yackamouih, Dennis Macey, and Jeannette Henault, as well the Fathers, Deacon Ron Filardi, and our whole parish community.

Please welcome into the full communion of the Catholic Church and to Sacred Heart parish: Cole Myers, Shannon Kralik, Timothy Farzalo, Dr. Matt Miller, Dr. Natalya Miller, Ken Wooldridge, Dacey McCrae, Gavin Throop, Monica Sommers, Diane Oliver, Kelley Witters, David Clark, Michele Mussio, Joe Mussio, Isabella Mussio, Aurora Moreno, Isaias Camarillo, Martin Camarillo, Bryan Moreno, Kayden Gardner, Angelica Garcia, Oziel Owen, Shawn McCreedy, Sofia Cabezas-Juarez, Karyme Lopez, Kiari Hernandez, Dyani Zavala, Yanet Valle, Noe Valle, Chip, Carrie, Alfred, Hugo, King, and Beatrix Phillips, Susan Whipple, Andy Silva, Johnny Silva, Carina Pineda Soria, Britney Barrientos, Kirsten Olarte-Boyd, Gary Boyd Jr., Bryan Gonzalez, Fernanda Rangel, Deanna Buck, Giancarlo Chavez, Demetrio Esquivel, Shaley Wels, Hnoriega Carillo, and Angela Carillo.

They were kind enough to write a brief testimony for you about their journey, below. We wish we had space to include them all! Their faith is inspiring, and their joy is contagious.

"Becoming a fully initiated Catholic will be the greatest, most awesome thing that has ever happened in my life. It was the outward beauty that began to draw me to the Catholic Church – the artwork and architecture of Catholic churches. Then, as I started to read the history of the Catholic Church, the lives and writings of the Saints, and watch EWTN, it was the inward beauty that drew me and deepened my desire to become Catholic. The Catholic faith is so rich and beautiful. RCIA has been a wonderful experience. I learned so much. As a practicing Catholic, I want to live the/ my Catholic faith to the fullest – a life devoted and faithful to Jesus and His Church, and in service to all those in need."
– Diane Oliver

"I have enjoyed the entire process of becoming Catholic. The RCIA classes have shed so much light on the many years attending church and now knowing the history and beliefs behind each sermon or scripture. This has been a family journey for my husband, Joe, and daughter, Isabella. It's been so amazing to go through this together."
– Michele and Joe Mussio

"Once I witnessed the power and beauty of the Mass, I began to desire the Eucharist so much. The desire to receive the Sacrament (of Holy Communion) is so powerful in me it is hard to describe. I feel at home, and I know that the Catholic Church is what I have been searching for all my life!" – Dr. Matt Miller

"I have contemplated becoming Catholic for many years, as I attended Mass as a child and young adult. Through God's divine love, my five year old daughter suggested we attend Mass together on Sundays and talk and learn about Jesus. What followed was a beautiful experience in which I said "yes" to God. I am overwhelmed with joy, and anticipate my Confirmation greatly. My heart deeply desires to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Moving forward, I surrender myself to God, as I know I've been chosen to be here!" Dr. Natalya Miller

"As Anglicans, our family was standing at the threshold, and it feels like we've been invited to step through the door into a new life." Carrie Phillips

"After 25 years at my former church, I found myself turning towards the Catholic Church. It was with sadness that I arrived here, but I didn't realize that God took this opportunity to open the door to Heaven – just for me!"
– Susan Whipple

"I had been seeking through all different religions. One day about 2 years ago while shopping at a second hand store, I came across a crucifix sitting on a shelf. I was drawn to it immediately, bought it and took it home. I would research the meaning (of the crucifix and anything else to do with Catholicism), and was soaking stuff up like a sponge. I feel at home in the Catholic Church. I am drawn to the way of its teachings. I'm drawn to the Saints and the different lives they led as well as to the sacraments. I have finally found that feeling one searches for...I have found it in the Catholic Church." –Kenny Wooldridge

"I started coming to the Catholic Church just to spend time with my girlfriend. I was a lot like other people; I had misconceptions about the Catholic faith. As I attended RCIA and learned, I fell in love with the Church and found that I was home. In this Church I have found Love and Truth, and like the old saying, Truth shall set you free."
– David Clark

“My journey in RCIA and becoming a Catholic has opened my spiritual side. Showing my two boys the faith in God and the religion is my priority now. I feel complete (more like me). – Aurora Moreno

“I have come home to my Heavenly Father. Christ came and fulfilled God’s promise and in doing so, forgave me. If you are tired of being alone, let’s go meet our Father in His home. Let’s meet Him together, as Catholics.” – Gavin Throop

“The process of becoming a Catholic means the world to me. It has been a long life journey that at some points I thought I couldn’t get through until I found God. I have been involved with the Church since I was a small child but was never into it. I had a hard time believing. After all my life’s hardships, I have come to realize that God was only testing my faith. I feel like I must fully commit and go through this process to thank God, and show Him that I believe in Him and He is the only one that can lead me out of the darkness into the light.” – Bryan Moreno, teen

“This has been a goal for a very long time. But this year my mom told me that I was going to do RCIA and become fully Catholic. At first I didn’t want to, but something about it made me want to come back. (Ann, you really made me feel blessed.) Something about the Catholic Church was how much I enjoy Mass on Sunday. I always look forward to Sundays to go to Mass.” Hnoriega Carillo, high school junior

“I cannot fully express into words why I have longed to become a Catholic. Once I began attending Mass at the Catholic Church, I felt as if I was home. I felt as if I could attend Mass and learn something new from each one. This feeling is something that I have searched for since I had discovered the role that Christ plays in my life, and how I wanted to receive Him.” – Dacey McCrae – Southern Oregon University Senior

If you or someone you know is considering becoming a fully initiated Catholic, please don’t hesitate to contact Ann Brophy, RCIA Director, at the parish office or abrophy@shcs.org. You’ll be glad you did. Wishing you all a most joyous Easter Season! – Ann Brophy

Easter Blessings: The waiting and preparing is over! From the office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries, I want to wish you all a HAPPY EASTER!!! Alleluia, Alleluia! Christ has risen and now the Church will begin a beautiful season of celebration. "Easter is not simply one feast among others, but the 'Feast of feasts,' the 'Solemnity of solemnities,' just as the Eucharist is the 'Sacrament of sacraments' (the Great Sacrament)" (CCC1169). The resurrection of our Lord breaks the bond of sin and death; we shall praise him with great thanksgiving and joy! In this Easter season I pray you and your family is able to rejoice and renew your relationship with our resurrected Lord this Easter Season!

Totus Tuus Maria, Whitney K. Godfrey.

CONFIRMATION: The next class is on Wednesday, April 6.
