40 Days For Life

Our Sacred Heart Parish Pastoral Council has the continued mission of discerning the spiritual needs of our faith community and of introducing spiritual activities and events that will help our members spiritually grow according to the mind of the Church and under the direction of our pope and our archbishop. They also are working in an ongoing fashion to create a spiritual vision of what Sacred Heart can and should become in partnership with the pastor. In the recent past they have taken up measures to help people feel more welcome and connected with a new parish directory, greeters, new registration forms and lector greetings as well as spiritual events such as our recent Marian consecration activity, parish picnic and parish feast day celebration. Regarding future pastoral planning they have helped to facilitate a series of town-hall meetings to get a better sense of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats we may face in the future. That information ultimately has led us to the Southern Oregon Pastoral Planning process that I am now involved in along with several other parish representatives. And we sent several representatives to the Pastoral Assembly to advise the Archbishop on matters pertaining to pastoral priorities for the entire archdiocese and how to reach them. Finally, and most importantly for this article, we engage in important community outreach as a way of evangelizing and living out our Gospel mission here in the Rogue Valley. For example, during the Year of Mercy, our pastoral council identified two local causes in particular that seemed to fulfill the challenge laid out by Pope Francis to become the face of mercy for others in need and to roll up our sleeves and let our lives intersect with the lives of others beyond our church walls.

The first of those two objectives has been successfully met. We worked with the cause of Hope Village to raise money for homes for the homeless. Parishioners mobilizes to build the homes and to raise money for their construction. That collection was the most successful special collection I have been a part of since coming to Medford. We raised over $16,000 and will be changing lives for the better in the process.

However, we have not yet begun to work on the second agenda item set by the council. This was to begin participating in the "40 Days for Life" campaign and to try to get other Southern Oregon parishes to work alongside us in this endeavor. You may go to 40daysforlife.com to check out the video of this campaign and its history but the short version is this: Parishes who participate in "40 Days For Life" commit to prayer and fasting, community outreach and peaceful vigil in order to bring an end to abortion. In states like Oregon we may also include the intention of bringing an end to physician assisted suicide and capital punishment as well but ending abortion is the central goal. A prayerful vigil is kept for 40 days and where this program has been employed there has been a widespread shut down of abortion clinics and a decline in abortion. At present, according to the official website, "40 Days For Life" has over 725,000 volunteers in 675 cities and 40 nations. At present there are 4535 local campaigns scheduled. We were intending to challenge our parish to join in this effort since, according to representatives in Klamath Falls, our area from Grants Pass to Ashland is the only area on the West Coast not covered. However, the campaign date conflicted with my pilgrimage to Europe. So here we are to try it again with a soft launch. A fully launched campaign would involve mobilizing volunteers to keep peaceful vigil near the abortion clinic in Ashland for 40 Days (which we hope to try later in the year). However, the next global campaign is scheduled for Lent (March 1 – April 9) and we do not have the time to train and recruit parishioners as we would need to do for a successful campaign, much less involve other neighboring parishes. What we would like to do this Lent is to ask you all to spiritually participate by helping us to create a spiritual bouquet of prayers. We will post sign-up sheets near our parish book of intentions and in the entryway of our adoration chapel and ask everyone to commit something to the cause for life...rosaries...holy hours...other devotional prayers and stand spiritually united with those around the world who will be keeping peaceful vigil. I hope you can all help us with some of your prayers! As a final reminder of this ongoing cause, I am committing my weekly bulletin article to topics around the gift of life and the ministries that help to promote and protect it.

Ash Wednesday is March 1, 2017 Please see Lenten calendar inside.

MASS FOR VOCATIONS FOLLOWED BY ANDREW AND MIRIAM DINNERS

Archbishop Sample will celebrate Mass on Sunday, March 19, at 5PM at Sacred Heart Church. Following the Mass the men and women will split up for their respective dinners.

An Andrew Dinner finds its roots in John 1:41-42, “[Andrew] first found his brother Simon... He brought him to Jesus”. Our priests are asked to invite young men in high school and above to encounter the priesthood of Jesus Christ through dinner and conversation with Archbishop Sample. At the same time a Miriam Dinner will take place. The Miriam Dinner is an opportunity for young women and area women religious to join for dinner and conversation. All parishioners are encouraged to come to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Please join us! Contact the parish office to register for the dinner and for more information.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

Classes are open to any child, Preschool -- 5th grade, Sundays at 9:50am to 11:15am at Sacred Heart School. NO CLASS (TODAY) Sunday February 26th— due to the Religious Education Conference in LA. Classes resume as usual March 5th.

Lent begins this Wednesday March 1st!! Lent is a time to deepen our relationship with the Lord through prayer. The Scriptures enable us to put into action the biblical command: "Pray without ceasing" (Thessalonians 5:17). Here are 3 ideas for promoting scriptural prayer during this special time of preparation for Easter.

- Explain that the Liturgy of the Hours is the official, public, daily prayer of the Church. Have your child memorize the first line of Psalm 51 "Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness". Encourage your child to recite it at home each morning and in the evening before bed.
- Read the weekly Lenten Sunday Gospel at the home early during that week. Perhaps have your child choose one line they want to remember and post it on an index card on the fridge or in place at home so they are reminded of God's Word.

- During Lent go to the website address for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) USCCB.org. Visit the site each day during Lent and click on the "Bible" tab. Choose "Today's Reading" from the dropdown menu. As a family take turns reading aloud the Gospel for the day. As a family prayerfully discuss the message and meaning of the Gospel.

Beauty and the Beast

7th Grader Evalina Kruger plays the Feather Duster who is a big flirt and Lumiere's girl-friend. The Feather Duster was Evalina's favorite part in the movie and especially liked the fact that she was French. Evalina's Grandpa came here from Poland and Evalina likes all things European. She worked really hard to get this part and it was a big accomplishment for her to get it. She adores working with her good friend Sophia who plays Lumiere. She said her classmates have been so supportive of each other. Evalina said she used to be really nervous and anxious at school and has blossomed at Sacred Heart. She and her classmates are like one big family and she is now full of confidence!

LETTERS TO HOMEBOUND PARISHIONERS

Sacred Heart School Students got involved in sending cards and letter to Sacred Heart homebound parishioners during Catholic Schools Week. To the students' delight, the parishioners have been sending letters back. The parishioners were so appreciate to be receiving snail mail letters which seems to be a lost art these days. During the last several years, many students have ended up being pen pals with the senior parishioners.
